Embassy of India, Luanda
भारत का दूतावास, लुआंडा

ADVISORY

The Embassy has been receiving complaints from Indian nationals (especially professionals and workers) regarding mal-treatment by the local companies, non-payment of their salaries and false promises given by the companies. Instances have also come to the notice where Indian professionals and workers, have taken up employment and working in Angola without having a legally valid employer-employee contract.

All Indian nationals, professionals and workers, who apply/intend to work in Angola, are hereby advised to do due diligence on the company, enter into a legally valid employer-employee contract and take extra caution before accepting any offer of employment in Angola.
